GARDENERS DELIGHT

New to the market is this quaint property located in the centre of Tully with beautiful established gardens.

Situated on a large 1,723m2 and complete with a large lockable shed/workshop. The house is a solid old style plastered 3 bedroom with one bathroom plus a large area down a couple of stairs to the laundry and rumpus room or could be an office. The Bathroom is just off a small hallway from the kitchen.

When you walk out the back you can go down into the second level of the back garden and under the back of the shed floor is an area that was used as a cellar by the original owners. There is also another space over the gully that can be used for gardens as well so any avid gardener would love this property.

The house does need some work but the bones are good and it is priced to sell. If you are a handyman and looking for an investment this property could earn $300 to $320 per week with a little work.
